Advocating responsible decisions that sustain coastal Georgia’s environment & quality of life.

Commentary on Coastal Issues Published in 2021

1. Spaceport Camden – Too many unanswered questions to approve, The Brunswick News, January
2. Economic policies jeopardize our future, Savannah Morning News, January
3. Camden Spaceport project must not receive DNR’s “Coastal Consistency Certification, The Savannahian, January
4. Toward a sustainable, just economy, Coastal Courier, Jesup Press-Sentinel, February
5. Tell legislators to vote no on HB150, SB102, The Brunswick News, February
6. Why Senate Bill 102 should be opposed, Atlanta Journal Constitution, February
7. Georgia Senate bill blocks clean energy, Jesup Press-Sentinel, March
8. SPLOST should be used to combat sea-rise, The Brunswick News, March
9. Georgia voters must demand legislative accountability, Coastal Courier, March
10. Time to embrace responsible climate initiatives, Savannah Morning News, March
11. State legislators again protect corporate interests, Savannah Morning News, April
12. Earth Day must become Truth Day, Like the Dew, Jesup Press-Sentinel, April
13. Voting is essential to action on climate issues, The Savannah Morning News, April
14. The crux of our climate predicament, The Brunswick News, May
15. Crucial need for honesty in energy policies, The Brunswick News, Coastal Courier, June
16. Redefining prosperity and how to achieve it, Jesup Press-Sentinel, June
17. Wood-pellet industry worsens climate change, Savannah Morning News, June
18. FAA environmental review of spaceport flawed by promotional bias, St. Marys Tribune-Georgian, June
19. Acknowledging the “truth” of climate change, Savannah Morning News, July
20. Corporate opportunists must be held accountable, Savannah Morning News, August
21. Causes of the climate crisis must be addressed, The Brunswick News, August
22. Policy reforms vital to timely climate action, The Brunswick News, September
23. Transforming anxieties into effective political action, Savannah Morning News, September
24. Public agencies assist in degrading a treasured scenic corridor, The Islander, September
25. Tail wagging dog on Jekyll master plan, public concern growing, The Islander, October
26. Jekyll Island Master Plan update must be revised, Coastal Courier, The Brunswick News, October
27. Jekyll Island park plan update must be revised, Atlanta Journal Constitution, October
28. Demand Justice, Coastal Courier, October
29. Addressing climate change an urgent priority, Savannah Morning News, November
30. Examining a convergence of moral imperatives, Coastal Courier, November

Commentary on Coastal Issues Published in 2020

1. Coal ash legislation must protect communities, Savannah Morning News and Coastal Courier, January
2. Delusions and downsides of so-called free markets, Jesup Press Sentinel, The Brunswick News, February
Advocating responsible decisions that sustain coastal Georgia’s environment & quality of life.

3. Disappointed in state rep’s op-ed, Savannah Morning News, February
4. Claims unfounded, democracy impaired, Savannah Morning News, February
5. Time to speak out against 50 years of pollution, The Brunswick News and Jesup Press Sentinel, March
6. Center challenges oil lobbyist, Savannah Morning News, March
7. Lessons to be learned from COVID-19, The Brunswick News, April
8. COVID-19 offers lesson on global crises, Savannah Morning News, April
9. Business as usual won’t work anymore, Coastal Courier, April
10. Accelerating change threatens our future, Jesup Press Sentinel, April
13. Hostilities jeopardize our future, The Augusta Chronicle, June
14. Prejudicial policies, reforms on horizon, The Brunswick News, June
17. A crucial time for comprehensive reforms, Savannah Morning News, Brunswick News, Coastal Courier, August
18. Climate is still a priority, Connect Savannah, Coastal Courier, Like the Dew, September
19. Partial offshore drilling moratorium is a misleading distraction, The Brunswick News, Jesup Press Sentinel, September
20. The vital importance of truth, The Brunswick News, Coastal Courier, Savannah Morning News, October
21. Circumstances justify bold energy reforms, The Brunswick News, October
22. A call to action for the challenge ahead, The Brunswick News, Coastal Courier, November
23. Reflections on America’s future, Like the Dew, December

Commentary on Coastal Issues Published in 2019

1. Clarifying the cause of rising sea-level, Savannah Morning News, January 2019
2. Don’t dismantle U.S. water safeguards, Coastal Courier, January 2019
3. We keep ignoring science – and the environment pays the price, Florida Times-Union, January 2019
4. Misconceived policies harm national interest, Augusta Chronicle, February 2019
5. House Bill would protect Georgia’s coast, Savannah Morning News, February 2019
6. Green energy goals and biomass, Coastal Courier, February 2019
8. Beware the politics of stealth, Coastal Courier and The Brunswick News, March 2019
9. Proposed legislation weakens vital shoreline protections, Savannah Morning News and Coastal Courier, March 2019
10. Inept opportunism harms national interest, Connect Savannah, April 2019
11. Georgians deserve better on shoreline protections, Savannah Morning News, April 2019
12. Green New Deal justifiably omits nuclear power, Coastal Courier, Augusta Chronicle, Savannah Morning News, and Florida Times-Union, April, 2019
13. Prevention of climate-change damage is subverted by calculated misinformation, Like the Dew, April 2019
14. Move to clean energy before it’s too late, Savannah Morning News, May 2019
Advocating responsible decisions that sustain coastal Georgia’s environment & quality of life.

15. Sensors can only inform, not impact decisions, Savannah Morning News, May 2019
17. Extinctions predict dire future: Reforms urgently needed, Coastal Courier, May 2019
19. Abandoning Science Has Costly Consequences for Americans, Like the Dew and Connect Savannah, June 2019
20. Collaborating to reduce greenhouse gases in Savannah, Savannah Morning News, June 2019
21. Politician, Heal Thyself, Coastal Courier, July 2019
22. Congressman’s performance casts grave doubts, Connect Savannah, July 2019
23. Climate change threatens water quality, economy, The Brunswick News, August 2019
24. Reconsidering federal flood insurance subsidies, Coastal Courier and Connect Savannah, August 2019
25. Facts are stubborn things, essential to our survival, The Brunswick News, August 2019
26. Responsible remedies for dire global limitations urgently needed, Jesup Press Sentinel and Coastal Courier, August 2019
27. Distinctions are Devious, Augusta Chronicle and Coastal Courier, September 2019
29. Political interests distorting terminology, Savannah Morning News, September 2019
30. Propaganda, politics, and the tragedy of profitable disinformation, Like the Dew, September 2019
31. Disheartened by energy industry propaganda, Savannah Morning News, September 2019
32. Rallying locals for the Global Climate Strike, Savannah Morning News, September 2019
34. Clean energy subsidies are cut as big oil bailouts continue, Florida Times-Union & Jesup Press Sentinel, September 2019
35. Unite behind the science, Coastal Courier, October 2019, Jesup Press-Sentinel, November 2019, and Savannah Morning News, December 2019
36. Zoning overhaul must address rising sea levels, The Brunswick News, October 2019
37. Rebuke, do not praise Representative Carter, Coastal Courier, Oct 2019
38. Troubled by cuts to clean energy subsidies, Savannah Morning News, October 2019
39. Climate-change column is deceptive, deeply flawed, Florida Times-Union, October 2019
40. Big Oil keeps getting government handouts, Coastal Courier, November 2019
41. Administration ignores climate damages, Savannah Morning News, November 2019
42. Sustaining the future of coastal Georgia is essential, The Brunswick News, November 2019
43. Coastal areas of Florida & Georgia are threatened by climate change, Florida Times Union, December 2019
44. Reconsidering reality in a period of rapid change, Savannah Morning News, Coastal Courier, December 2019

Commentary on Coastal Issues Published in 2018

1. Offshore drilling not needed, imposes unacceptable risks, Savannah Morning News – January
2. Reduce avoidable coastal storm damage, Savannah Morning News – January
3. Protecting Cumberland Island is imperative, Connect Savannah – January
5. Study coastal hazards, Augusta Chronicle – February
Advocating responsible decisions that sustain coastal Georgia's environment & quality of life.

8. Confronting deceptive practices of big oil, Augusta Chronicle – April
9. Protections against toxic coal ash must not be weakened, Jesup Press Sentinel – April
10. Flaws found in spaceport review, Savannah Morning News – April
11. Spaceport study negligent, The Brunswick News – April
12. Vital truths vs. well financed deceptions, The Brunswick News – April
13. Georgia must stop subsidizing nuclear power, Florida Times Union – May
14. EPA corner-cutting is a fool’s bargain, Coastal Courier – May
15. Urgent need for coastal hazard plan in Georgia, Saporta Report – May
16. Hidden costs of dirty energy are high, Savannah Morning News – May
17. County amendment violated procedures, The Brunswick News – June
18. Fossil fuels’ hold on politics impedes clean energy, Augusta Chronicle – July
20. Renewable energy and urgent necessity, The Coastal Courier – July
22. Further thoughts on sea-level rise and climate change, Coastal Courier – August
23. We’re all responsible for the future, Savannah Morning News, Augusta Chronicle, Like the Dew – August
24. Time to end corporate welfare for big oil, Florida Times Union, Coastal Courier – August
25. Renewable energy not only practical but urgently needed, Connect Savannah – August
27. Climate change harms increasing, Savannah Morning News – September
28. Steps must be taken to curb climate change, The Brunswick News – September
29. Immediate action is needed to stop climate change, The Brunswick News – October
30. A call to fight climate change, Savannah Morning News – October
31. Climate change a serious threat with only one urgent solution, Augusta Chronicle – October
32. Hurricane Florence shows cost of inadequate regulation, Coastal Courier – October
33. Candidate incorrectly uses idea of energy independence, The Brunswick News – October
34. Urgent need to address cause of climate change, The Brunswick News – October
35. Sustainable Coast files legal complaint against Corps for Sea Island permit, The Islander – November
36. Targeted policies urgently needed for a speedy transition to clean energy, Saporta Report – November
37. Climate change another strike against offshore drilling, Savannah Morning News – December
38. Why we oppose offshore drilling and testing more than ever, Like the Dew and Connect Savannah – December
39. Support laws that protect coastal Georgia, Coastal Courier – December
40. Reducing greenhouse gas emissions will boost the American economy, The Brunswick News – December